About dcrc

DCRC is a Defence supported facility aimed at providing quality educational activities for and building social supports to assist Defence families in meeting the challenges of service life.

DCRC Believes in:

- Supporting families and building resilience;
- Developing partnerships with the Defence and wider Cairns community;
- Helping to reduce the impact of mobility; and
- Helping to overcome the challenges of a military lifestyle.

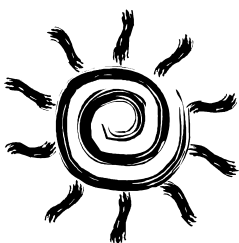

The DCRC Committee of dedicated volunteers oversees the general control and management of the administration, affairs, property and funds of DCRC with assistance from the Defence Community Organisation (DCO). The DCRC Family Centre at 3 Jensen Street Manooora is a venue used by many different groups including Extreme Tuesdays (Craft Morning) and Cairns Coral Kids Playgroup.

To ensure the continued provision of services and support to local Defence families, DCRC hosts several fundraising events a year. These range from BBQs, to raffles and trivia nights. In 2012, our major Fundraising event is the Golf Day and DCRC committee members are working very hard to its success! We would love to have , and are sincerely appreciative of, your support and contributions.

“TROPIC TOPICS” ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES!

The “Tropic Topics” Newsletter is a free monthly publication created and distributed DCRC. It aims to provide Cairns Defence Families with information on local activities, events and issues. It is available by online subscription (or in hardcopy by request).

Limited sponsorship/advertising opportunities are available at extremely reasonable annual rates. Please contact DCRC for further information.
